Today Chambers USA released their 2015 survey results and ranked the following Axinn practice areas:

Connecticut – Litigation: General Commercial

District of Columbia – Antitrust

New York – Antitrust

In addition to the rankings, Chambers provided the following client and peer quotes and feedback on the marketplace perception of Axinn:

"I think their work has been really, really top notch - they're quite comfortable moving beyond the obvious issues and digging down deeper to get to the next level of analysis."

"They work well together, are thoughtful about strategy, creative and very practical."

"They have assembled a strong team of lawyers."

"Axinn is one of the most respected antitrust firms, and its reputation is well deserved."

"They do a wonderful job and have been excellent for us."
