

Prominent Antitrust Adviser Tiffany Rider Joins Axinn in Washington, DC

July 26, 2018

ATTORNEYS

Rider, Tiffany

PRACTICE AREAS

Antitrust

Axinn is pleased to announce that Tiffany Rider has joined its Antitrust Group as a partner in the firm's Washington, DC office.

Joining from Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP & Affiliates, Ms. Rider has over 15 years of experience focusing on criminal antitrust cartel investigations; follow-on antitrust class action litigation and arbitration; and complex mergers and acquisitions. Ms. Rider has defended companies and individuals in consequential international cartel cases, advocating before the Department of Justice, European Commission and Canadian Competition Bureau, among other global enforcement agencies.

In her counseling and compliance practice, she designs and implements global competition compliance programs for clients in diverse industries, including technology, manufacturing, transportation and financial services. Additionally, Ms. Rider has extensive experience representing clients on significant mergers and acquisitions, including before both the Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission.

"Tiffany's wealth of experience in criminal antitrust matters, complex litigation and billion-dollar transactions significantly bolsters our ability to serve our clients internationally," said John Harkrider, Co-Chair of the Antitrust Group and a founding partner at the firm. "This addition allows us to continue our growth during a transformative era of antitrust law. We are pleased to welcome Tiffany to the team."

Ms. Rider added, "Axinn is widely recognized for its excellence in litigating complex antitrust matters and advising on international mergers and acquisitions. I look forward to working with such an accomplished and driven team."

Ms. Rider is a member of the American Bar Association's International Cartel Task Force, and previously served as a Chair of the Civil Practice and Procedure Committee at the ABA. She was also named by Chambers USA among "America's Leading Lawyers for Business 2018," and in the Legal 500 U.S. She is a frequent speaker on panels regarding international competition developments, including follow-on European litigation.

Ms. Rider earned her JD from the Indiana University School of Law and her BA from the University of California, Los Angeles.

Press Coverage:

- GCR
- Law360