Axinn is proud to sponsor the International Bar Association's Annual Competition Conference, being held September 12-13 in Florence, Italy.

This year's event will bring together leading regulators, senior legal counsel, and antitrust experts to discuss topics such as:

- Global enforcement priorities from leading competition authorities;
- A new era for merger control, focusing on industrial policy, competitiveness, and innovation;
- Access terms and interoperability in digital platforms; and
- Information exchange in the digital age, including signaling and algorithmic pricing.
