Axinn is pleased to announce that Partner Bradley Justus has been honored in Bloomberg Law's prestigious "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" list, celebrating top legal professionals age 40 and under.

Bradley's practice focuses on high-stakes antitrust matters. His numerous high-profile representations include serving as counsel in headline-making litigations concerning Google's ad technology business against the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), state attorneys general, private class plaintiffs, the Daily Mail, and Gannett, as well as securing antitrust clearance for Dow Chemical's $130 billion merger with DuPont—one of the largest and most complex merger reviews in history. He has also helped clients prevail in challenging post-patent-loss antitrust cases and has resolved significant disputes for Tyson Foods and others.

In his Bloomberg profile, Bradley reflected on the lessons learned early in his career about empathy, teamwork, and resilience, values that continue to guide his leadership today. He emphasized his commitment to mentoring colleagues, fostering Axinn's collaborative culture, and helping lawyers thrive both professionally and personally.
