Victoria Ang is an associate in Axinn's Antitrust group. Her practice focuses on merger review and governmental investigations across a variety of industries. She also has experience supporting complex litigation, conducting legal research, drafting memoranda, and assisting with deposition preparation.

Prior to joining Axinn, Victoria served as a legal extern to the Honorable Andrew Y.S. Cheng of the San Francisco Superior Court, where she drafted judicial orders, statements of decision, and legal memoranda. She also completed legal externships with a leading rideshare company and a startup legal clinic, gaining experience with intellectual property, employment, commercial, and technology-related matters, including work with emerging biotechnology companies.

Victoria earned her JD from the University of California College of the Law, San Francisco, where she was a Staff Editor for the UC Law Business Journal and served in leadership roles with the Technology & Law Society and the Latinx Law Student Association. She holds a BA in Economics and English from Boston College.
