Axinn announced today that the Firm has been named a Top Performer and Compass Award winner by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), recognizing organizations that demonstrate a sustained commitment to building a more inclusive legal profession through measurable participation and leadership engagement.

"We are honored to be recognized by LCLD as a Top Performer and Compass Award winner," said Jeny Maier, Managing Partner of Axinn. "These recognitions reflect our Firm's ongoing commitment to expanding opportunity, investing in leadership development, and strengthening a legal profession where talented attorneys can thrive. We are especially proud of Rebecca Clegg, Caroline Boisvert, and Tasneem Chowdhury, who completed the organization's Fellows and Pathfinder leadership development programs in 2025, and we look forward to supporting our 2026 participants as they continue building relationships and leadership skills through LCLD."

The Firm also announced that Rebecca Clegg and Caroline Boisvert received the 2025 Atlas Award, which recognizes Fellows and Pathfinders who demonstrate the highest levels of engagement throughout the program.
