Partners Tiffany Rider and James Attridge were recognized among the top practitioners in Antitrust: Cartel by Chambers Global in its 2026 Guide.

In her practice, Tiffany helps clients navigate domestic and international cartel cases and antitrust civil litigation. Her extensive experience includes advocating before agencies like the Department of Justice and the European Commission. She also has a strong track record in class action litigation and arbitration.

Jimmy's practice is focused on guiding clients through government investigations and antitrust litigation. Jimmy has deep government experience across the Trump and Biden administrations – including as a federal prosecutor and as Chief of Staff for the Justice Department's Antitrust Division.
