On March 23, Axinn partner Brian Johnson will speak on the “Winning ITC Strategy: A Practitioner’s Guide to 337 Litigation” panel at IPWatchdog’s sixth annual Live Conference, being held March 22-24 in Arlington, Virginia.

Panelists will address tactical considerations that often determine outcomes, such as early motion practice, expert strategy, evidentiary pressure points, remedy positioning, and settlement leverage under the ITC’s accelerated timeline. Panelists will also explore when the ITC is the right forum—and when it is not—from both patent owner and respondent perspectives.
