John Harkrider and Craig Minerva won a 2026 Concurrences Antitrust Writing Award for their article “Antitrust in a Time of Trade War.” The article was recognized in the Business, Cross-Border category.

The award followed a three-month evaluation process involving 60 international antitrust experts and a review of more than 600 submissions.

The Concurrences Antitrust Writing Awards honor outstanding scholarship and thought leadership in competition law and economics, promoting competition advocacy across legal and economic fields.
