On June 3, Axinn partners Bradley Justus and Mary Helen Wimberly will speak at the Global Competition Review's Live: Europe 2026, being held on June 2-3 in Brussels.

Bradley will speak on the “Where next for Big Tech?” panel. Panelists will discuss:

- What's changed under the DMA and DSA?
- Learnings from the first two years
- How does the EU define success?
- Can the EU withstand pressure from the Trump Administration?
- Where next for AI and Cloud Computing?

Mary Helen will speak on the “Litigating successfully and effectively in an era of rising cases and private damages actions” panel. Panelists will discuss:

- Litigating before the courts: what makes for successful advocacy?
- Defending follow-on damages: how to design an effective strategy
