On June 20, Axinn Chief Financial Officer Neeraj Aggarwal will speak on a panel entitled “From Counsel to Corner Office: South Asian Lawyers in the C-Suite” at the South Asian Bar Association of North America Annual Conference, being held June 18–21 in San Diego, CA.

This panel will explore how South Asian attorneys can successfully transition from legal counsel to broader leadership roles within their organizations. Panelists will share candid insights from their own journeys into executive leadership, discussing how lawyers can build credibility with business stakeholders, develop financial and operational fluency, and position themselves as trusted strategic advisors rather than solely legal gatekeepers.
