

Events

Speaking Engagement

DC Bar: The DOJ's New Antitrust Whistleblower Rewards Program: An Overview and the Road Ahead

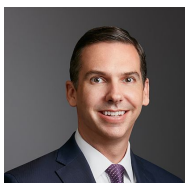

When: July 15, 2026, 12:00 PM

Location: Washington, DC

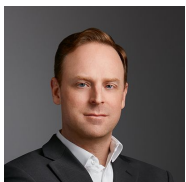

People: James W. Attridge, Daniel K. Oakes

Register →

Related People

James W. Attridge

Daniel K. Oakes

Related Services

Antitrust

On July 15, Axinn Partners James Attridge and Daniel Oakes will speak during the DC Bar's briefing titled "The DOJ's New Antitrust Whistleblower Rewards Program: An Overview and the Road Ahead."

The briefing will cover the program's structure and scope, lessons emerging from the first payout of monetary awards, and what to expect from the DOJ moving forward, along with implications for compliance efforts, internal investigations, and DOJ investigations and litigation.

This is a hybrid program offered in-person and remotely. Click here to attend this program in-person and here to attend the program remotely.

To subscribe to our publications, click here.