Axinn Partners Leslie Overton, Dan Matheson, James “Jimmy” Moore, and Associate Anna Van de Stouwe will serve as the roundtable panel during the American Bar Association’s Webinar titled “Inside Antitrust Enforcement—Former Government Perspectives.”

Former DOJ and FTC antitrust enforcers, whose experience spans from the George W. Bush Administration to the second Trump Administration, will discuss what has changed and what has remained consistent in agency enforcement. The panel will explore how decisions are shaped by different government actors, provide insights into agency decision-making, and share best advocacy practices.
