Axinn partner James W. Attridge will speak during the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics' (SCCE) 25th Annual Compliance & Ethics Institute on the panel "New Rewards and Evolving Risks: What You Need to Know About Antitrust Compliance in 2026," taking place in Orlando, FL, from 8:30–9:30 a.m. ET on Wednesday, September 30.

The session will explore the DOJ Antitrust Division's first-ever whistleblower rewards program and its implications for compliance risk, including in the M&A context. Panelists will also discuss current enforcement priorities and compliance expectations, along with practical strategies for identifying and addressing antitrust risk.
