Antitrust

Axinn partner Katrina Rouse will speak at GCR Live: Women in Antitrust 2026 on the panel “Foreign Investment, Antitrust & Shifting Dynamics in Major Deals” on November 17 from 11:15 a.m.–12:15 p.m. in Washington, D.C.

The panel will examine the increasingly interconnected roles of merger control, foreign direct investment screening, national security, and geopolitical considerations in major cross-border transactions. Katrina and her fellow panelists will discuss trends in national-security-related deals, the influence of industrial policy and “national champion” considerations on FDI outcomes, and what these shifting dynamics mean for modern dealmaking.
