Axinn is proud to support the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA) Annual Convention, taking place November 12–14 in Los Angeles.

Axinn attorney Kenina J. Lee will speak on the CLE panel “When Social Goals Become Anticompetitive,” examining issues at the intersection of competition law and broader social objectives.

The NAPABA Convention is one of the largest annual gatherings of attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students, bringing meaningful insights, networking opportunities, and perspective to the legal community.
