

Events

Event

Ethics and Intellectual Property Traps, Pitfalls and Adventures in IP Lawyering (2017)

When: December 6, 2017

People: Matthew S. Murphy

Related People

Matthew S. Murphy

Related Services

Axinn associate Matt Murphy spoke at a CLE program entitled, “Ethics and Intellectual Property Traps, Pitfalls and Adventures in IP Lawyering.” This interactive roundtable-style program presented ethical scenarios and dilemmas from each area of intellectual property law and a review of the relevant provisions of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Speakers facilitated a discussion of best practices. Ethical scenarios were derived from real-world events and cases.

This program was presented by the Intellectual Property Section of the Connecticut Bar Association.

To subscribe to our publications, click here.