On February 18, Axinn partner Lisl Dunlop spoke on, “How to Prevent Antitrust Breaches? Fostering a Culture of Compliance” at the inaugural Concurrences Antitrust Compliance Awards.

This virtual global summit is designed to promote antitrust compliance by bringing together the most prominent and innovative actors across the field, including enforcers, academics, corporations, law firms, consultants, and legal techs. Lisl's panel addressed governance issues, risk assessment, policies and guidance, the validation process, and training.
