

Events

Speaking Engagement

Ethical Considerations for Cybersecurity, IP Transactions and Avoiding USPTO Sanctions (EIP241212)

When: December 12, 2024
Location: Hartford
People: Brooke J. Oppenheimer

Related People

Brooke J. Oppenheimer

Related Services

Intellectual Property

eDiscovery, Cyber & Data Protection counsel Brooke Oppenheimer will speak on the “Ethical Considerations for Cybersecurity, IP Transactions and Avoiding USPTO Sanctions” panel, hosted by the Connecticut Bar Association’s Intellectual Property Section.

Drawing from real world scenarios, the panelists will address ethical challenges arising from IP transactions and USPTO practice as well as an attorney’s ethical duties relating to cybersecurity and data privacy and security.

To subscribe to our publications, click here.