Axinn Partner Bradley Justus has been named “Lawyer of the Year: Under 40” at the 2025 Global Competition Review Awards, recognizing his exceptional advocacy in some of the most closely watched antitrust cases in recent years. His numerous high-profile representations include serving as antitrust counsel in headline-making litigations concerning Google’s ad technology business against the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), state attorneys general, private class plaintiffs, the Daily Mail, and Gannett. The Google ad tech matter was also recognized as the 2025 “Behavioural Matter of the Year – Americas.”

“We congratulate Bradley on his well-deserved win for Lawyer of the Year: Under 40 and are honored to be recognized by GCR for our dedication to delivering successful outcomes for our clients,” said Partner and Antitrust Group Chair Mike Keeley. “These recognitions reflect our commitment to excellence and innovation, as well as the trust our clients place in us to navigate some of the most complex and high-stakes antitrust matters in today’s business landscape.”
