Axinn counsel Kail Jethmalani participated in ABA's Our Curious Amalgam podcast in an episode entitled, "LIV and Let Live? The Antitrust Fight Between the PGA and LIV Golf."

LIV Golf is the most serious threat the PGA has ever faced, and the fight between the two professional golf tours has grown increasingly personal and bitter, but is the PGA defending itself through illegal anticompetitive tactics? Kail joined hosts Anant Raut and Anora Wang to discuss the life of a professional golfer, what makes the LIV tour appealing, the PGA's history against upstart rivals, and why the antitrust case between the two tours may end up in the Supreme Court.
