

Axinn Wins Motion to Dismiss Monopolization Suit for Stanley Black & Decker

June 27, 2014

ATTORNEYS

Dagen, Richard

Harkrider, John

O'Mara, Michael

PRACTICE AREAS

Antitrust

John Harkrider, along with partner Rick Dagen and associate Mike O'Mara acted as lead counsel for Stanley Black & Decker in obtaining dismissal of a monopolization suit brought by SawStop in the Eastern District of Virginia. This suit claimed that Stanley Black & Decker had conspired with other table saw suppliers to prevent SawStop technology -- which would allegedly prevent table saw accidents -- from being mandated on all table saws.