Axinn is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the 2017 Travelers Championship, a PGA Tour event. The annual tournament will take place from June 19 – 25, at the TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Connecticut. Aside from drawing top golf talent and celebrity speakers, the tournament donates 100 percent of its net proceeds to local charities. The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp, founded by the late Paul Newman, is the primary beneficiary of this year's tournament. To date, the Travelers Championship has donated over $36 million to Connecticut charities.
