Two written pieces authored by Axinn lawyers have been nominated for the Concurrences 2024 Antitrust Writing Awards. These awards aim to promote competition scholarship and contribute to competition advocacy. Axinn's lawyers have consistently been recognized in previous nominations over the years.

Support Axinn's commitment to excellence by casting your ballot alongside a distinguished jury of government regulators, academics, and business leaders to choose the winning articles. Your participation matters in shaping the future of antitrust scholarship.

To read and vote for Axinn's nominated articles, please view the links below:

- "Remedies in the Context of Multi-Jurisdictional Mergers," John Harkrider and Michael O'Mara, Global Competition Review - Merger Remedies Guide (October 2023)
- "Shift in Health Care Antitrust Prosecutions is Likely," James Attridge, Daniel Oakes, and Tasneem Chowdhury, Law360 (February 2023)

As you navigate through these thought-provoking pieces, remember that your vote isn't merely a choice between nominations; it's an endorsement of intellectual rigor and a vision for a fair and competitive marketplace.

The winners will be announced at the Awards Ceremony on April 9, 2024, on the eve of the ABA Antitrust Spring Meeting, in Washington, D.C.
