Axinn is pleased to announce partners Rachel J. Adcox, Daniel S. Bitton, Lisl J. Dunlop, and John D. Harkrider have been recognized in the Who's Who Legal (WWL): Thought Leaders Competition 2024 Report.

Through interviews with their researchers, the publication gathers the perspectives, skills, and knowledge of leading competition lawyers and economists worldwide. The recognized individuals garnered the highest number of nominations from peers, corporate counsel, and various market sources in the course of WWL's research period.

Their exceptional recognition is deserved not just for their extensive knowledge and experience in providing guidance on globally significant and cutting-edge legal issues, but also for their capacity to innovate and exceed expectations in delivering to their clients.
