Axinn won Firm of the Year – Americas at the 2024 Global Competition Review Awards. This is the third time in eight years the firm has won the Firm of the Year – Americas award, which recognizes the firm that has had an extremely successful 2023 in terms of the quality and quantity of its competition work.

“We are proud to be recognized by GCR for our work in driving positive outcomes for our clients, said Michael Keeley, Chair of Axinn’s Antitrust practice. “This honor is a testament to our unwavering commitment to excellence and innovation as well as the trust our clients place in us to achieve the best results for them in some of the most complex and significant antitrust matters facing companies today.”

Broadcom's $69 billion acquisition of VMware, on which we served as global antitrust counsel to VMware, won Merger Control Matter of the Year – Asia-Pacific.

About Axinn

Axinn combines the skills, experience, and dedication of the world’s largest firms with the focus, responsiveness, efficiency, and attention to client needs of the best boutiques. The firm was established in the late 1990s by lawyers from premier Wall Street firms with a common vision: provide the highest level of service and strategic acumen in antitrust, intellectual property, and high-stakes litigation. Axinn’s lawyers have served as lead or co-lead counsel on more than half a trillion dollars in transactions and, in the last 10 years alone, have handled more than 500 litigations.
